CAT sounds awkward

FORMER Attorney General Soli Sorabjee dislikes the word CAT, the acronym for the Central Administrative Tribunal.

While delivering CAT's all-India lecture, the legal luminary wasted little time in suggesting that its name should be changed. He said it could be called the 'union administrative tribunal' because CAT sounded awkward. "Take the word CAT out," he joked, probably referring to the 'catfights' that take place in the tribunal meant to sort out personnel issues concerning bureaucrats.
